

I well remember ^{E.} Edna Loomis telling that her grandfather's home was a place of refuge for those who came north by means of the underground railroad.

[Written by Edith A. Gardner and read by her at the Griswold Reunion in 1979 at Ridge Farm, Clinton Township, Wayne County, PA.]